The screenshot shows the IRS.gov website's 'EIN Assistant' page. The browser's address bar displays 'https://sa.www4.irs.gov/mod/ein/individual/index.jsp'. The page header includes the IRS logo and a navigation link 'Help | Apply for New EIN | Exit'. The main content area is titled 'EIN Assistant' and contains the following sections:

- Important Information Before You Begin: A notice to use the assistant to apply for and obtain an Employer Identification Number (EIN). It includes links for 'Do I need an EIN?' and 'Do I need a new EIN?'. A callout box on the right provides help for additional information, such as clicking underlined key words or viewing help topics.
- About the EIN Assistant: A list of instructions:
 - You must complete this application in one session, as you will not be able to save and return at a later time.
 - For security purposes, your session will expire after 15 minutes of inactivity, and you will need to start over.
 - You will receive your EIN immediately upon verification. When will I be able to use my EIN?
 - If you wish to receive your confirmation letter online, we strongly recommend that you install Adobe Reader before beginning the application if it is not already installed.
- Restrictions: A list of limitations:
 - Effective May 21, 2012, to ensure fair and equitable treatment for all taxpayers, the Internal Revenue Service will limit Employer Identification Number (EIN) issuance to one per responsible party per day. This limitation is applicable to all requests for EINs whether online or by phone, fax or mail. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.
 - If a Third Party Designee \(TPD\) is completing the online application on behalf of the taxpayer, the taxpayer must authorize the third party to apply for and receive the EIN on his or her behalf.
 - The business location must be within the United States or U.S. territories.
 - Foreign filers without an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) cannot use this assistant to obtain an EIN.
 - If you were incorporated outside of the United States or the U.S. territories, you cannot apply for an EIN online. Please call us at 267-941-1099 (this is not a toll free number).

The screenshot shows the IRS.gov website's 'EIN Assistant' page at the '1. Identify' step. The browser's address bar displays 'https://sa.www4.irs.gov/mod/ein/individual/legal-structure.jsp'. The page header includes the IRS logo and a navigation link 'Help | Apply for New EIN | Exit'. The main content area is titled 'EIN Assistant' and features a progress bar with five steps: '1. Identify', '2. Authenticate', '3. Addresses', '4. Details', and '5. EIN Confirmation'. The current step is '1. Identify', which is highlighted in blue.

The main content area is titled 'What type of legal structure is applying for an EIN?' and contains the following sections:

- Before applying for an EIN you should have already determined what type of legal structure, business, or type of organization is being established.
- Choose the type you are applying for. If you don't see your type, select "View Additional Types."
- A list of legal structure options with radio buttons:
 - Sole Proprietor: Includes individuals who are in business for themselves and household employers.
 - Partnerships: Includes partnerships and joint ventures.
 - Corporations: Includes S corporations, personal service corporations, real estate investment trusts (REIT), regulated investment funds (RIC), and settlement funds.
 - Limited Liability Company (LLC): A limited liability company (LLC) is a structure allowed by state statute and is formed by filing articles of organization with the state.
 - Estate: An estate is a legal entity created as a result of a person's death.
 - Trusts: All types of trusts including conservatorships, custodianships, guardianships, irrevocable trusts, revocable trusts, and receiverships.
 - View Additional Types, Including Tax-Exempt and Governmental Organizations: If none of the above fit what you are establishing, there are several others to choose from.

Please confirm your selection.

Confirm your selection of Political Organization as the type of structure applying for an EIN.

What it is...

- A political organization is a party, committee, association, or fund (including a separate segregated fund described in section 527(f)(3) set up by a section 501(c) organization, or other organization).
- A political organization is organized and operated primarily for the purpose of:
 - Accepting contributions, making contributions, or both
 - Influencing the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to any public office or office in a political organization.

If you need to change your type of structure, we recommend that you do so now, otherwise you will have to start over and re-enter your information. Additional help may be found by reviewing all types of organizations and structures before making your selection.
